Request for Trading Halt

Pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 17.1 Corum Group Limited (ASX:COO) (the Company) requests an immediate halt in the trading of the Company's ordinary shares quoted on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX).

In accordance with Listing Rule 17.1, the Company provides the following information in relation to the request:

- The trading halt is requested pending an anticipated announcement by the Company regarding a judgment to be delivered by the Victorian Supreme Court in legal proceedings relating to PharmX Pty Ltd (PharmX) today 21 April 2023. PharmX is a wholly owned subsidiary of Corum Systems Pty Ltd which is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. The Company previously updated the market on these legal proceedings on 25 November 2022.
- The Company considers the trading halt appropriate in these circumstances to allow it sufficient time to assess whether the outcome of the legal proceedings may have a material effect on the value of COO's securities and reasonably manage its continuous disclosure obligations.
- The Company requests the trading halt remains in place until the earlier of commencement of normal trading on Wednesday 26 April 2023, or when the announcement referred to above is released to the market.
- The Company expects to make the announcement to the market before the commencement of normal trading on Wednesday 26 April 2023.
- The Company is not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted or of any further information necessary to inform the market about the trading halt.
